THE CONNAUGHT BAR IS NAMED THE WORLD'S BEST BAR FOR THE SECOND CONSECUTIVE YEAR

Wednesday 8th December, 2021 - The Connaught Bar has held onto its hard-earned crown for another year as No.1 bar in the world, awarded by the prestigious World's 50 Best Bars Awards last night. The Connaught Bar at The Connaught, in London's Mayfair, renowned for exceptional craftsmanship, landmark cocktails and daring new mixes - has had a place on the Best Bar's list since 2010, rising from second place on the 2019 list.

This year is the second time that this institution for cocktail lovers has been named the official winner – a feat that previously only two bars have achieved in the awards' 13-year history.

Agostino Perrone, Director of Mixology accepted the bar's award with his team, and said "Last night was an emotional evening, as we celebrated this exceptional award with our industry friends. After another challenging year in hospitality, the industry's resilience and unity through these times has been extraordinary. Our commitment to this industry and to our beloved guests has been our fundamental driver for the past 13 years. We will continue to work hard and keep up - as individuals, professionals, but foremost, as a team and a bar community to inspire the next generation."

The Connaught Bar opened at the hotel in 2008, designed by David Collins Studio and has continued to maintain its position at the forefront of the London cocktail scene, offering a mix of traditional cocktails with innovative twists, and has spearheaded the art of table side theatre with its signature Martini trolley.

Cocktail lovers can enjoy a little of the bar's magic this festive season with The Connaught Bar's Collection. This features the bar's cocktail shaker in silver and engraved, a whole host of bespoke glassware and The Connaught Bar Gin distilled and bottled in Mayfair.
